

It has come to our attention that some tipsters are abusing SoccerPunter Tipsters' Competition by placing multiple bet parlays consisting of the same matches with all kinds of bet outcomes.

An example of such abuse

The tipster placed 7 bet parlays for the same matches but each parlay consisting of different outcomes. Because with all the random bet parlays outcomes, the tipster was hoping that one would strike to bring him a fortune in SoccerPunter Tipsters' Competition.

Unfortunately our support team who is constantly monitoring the competition spotted his infringement. From time to time, we also receive valuable feedback from the public to comment on tipsters who are abusing the system.

SOCCERPUNTER have since issued a warning to the tipster and his invalid bets are immediately removed from the system.

For repeated offenders, we will not hesitate to suspend or impose a permanent ban for taking part in the competition.

We seek to develop a fair and impartial environment for soccer tipsters around the world. Your fullest co-operation is deeply appreciated!
